(1) Home: - As the name suggests this is the main webpage of TheAbroadEducation.com. The core functionality of college search system can be accessed from this page only. For searching a college I have added two radio buttons, text/number fields and a search button, all these components works as filters to find user's desired college and university. The Home page contains some images and benefits of studying abroad. This page also featured with the top study destinations which include USA, UK, France, Australia and Germany.

Abroad

You may have heard about studying overseas but are new to actually surfing this site. StudyAbroad.com has a fantastic way for you to search for Study Abroad Programs by level, type and country. It's easy and visual so you won't get lost.

style="color:white;font-family:Candara;font-size:32px">Globalize While abroad, you will be given the opportunity to further your academic study in a foreign country. There are a variety of programs to choose from: some immerse you directly in a foreign culture and language, while others ease you into a culture shock with support services designed specifically for study abroad students. With so many unique programs, it may be easy to find a good fit for your personality and goals. Take this opportunity to expose yourself to the world.

Broaden Your Experience

It is easy to have a limited view of the world we live in, but international travel can relieve you of this. You will learn how your home country fits into humanity, and through the eyes of a different culture, you can more precisely reflect upon your own culture. While learning another country's traditions, you will understand the significance of keeping your own traditions alive while sharing them with others. During your time abroad, you may be presented with the opportunity to travel around your host country or neighboring countries, take advantage of this. Executing travel plans and seeing unforgettable sights may help you see the world through a new set of eyes.

Take the Challenge

Studying abroad comes with its challenges which directly relate to the benefits of studying abroad. No matter where you end up, you will more than likely be out of your comfort zone as you face obstacles like homesickness, spending and budgeting foreign currency and simply living in a new, unfamiliar place. These may seem like small feats now, but in retrospect you'll be proud of the accomplishments you have overcome. You'll most likely return home a wiser individual and ready to face any future challenges head on.

Make Friends From Around The World/span>

It's likely that the university you choose for your international studies will have a large community of students both from the local area and all around the globe. If you take full advantage of this opportunity, you could graduate having established lasting friendships with people based in many different countries, great for future trips, and also a good basis for an international professional network. As Dalferes says, "Spending time studying abroad can provide an excellent opportunity to make new contacts and build invaluable relationships with peers from around the world."

br>

Become Truly
Independent

The experience of university is, for most new students, a steep learning curve in gaining independence. But studying abroad takes that a whole step further, challenging students to really develop as individuals. Dee Roach says, "You obviously have to cope on your own when you are studying abroad. You have to be able to look after yourself and sort out your own affairs."

TheAbroadEducation.com offers a comprehensive directory of best Universities and Colleges around the globe, all organized by their requirement of IELTS/TOEFL and country.If you are looking for detailed and up to date information on studying abroad then you have come to the right place.

Our primary role is to connect students with universities and colleges around the world. To do this, we have a large database of degree courses for students to search, covering the UK, USA, Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, Canada, Germany, France, and Ireland. We will be with you at every stage of your study abroad journey. Our services range from application assistance to predeparture instructions. Students looking for trustworthy overseas education consultants can rely on us for guidance.

Through our ultimate search technology we match your English language level with where you want to study, to produce a tailored set of results. In short, we will help you see which universities you can get in to. Our search speeds up the process by narrowing the vast choice of universities down to the right universities to apply to based on the criteria that matter to you.

(FAQ)

Searching System/Function:-

I have used PHP-MYSQL database connection to fetch the data from database as per the input from user and created a JavaScript function to enable and disable radio box, for instance, suppose a user has checked the radio box of "English Lan-Certification Required" then the IELTS and TOEFL boxes will be highlighted for input otherwise they will be disabled.

After selecting a country user needs to specify English-Lan Certification, after that when user hits the search button, all the entered data is validated by PHP Script and data will be fetched from the MySQL database and result will be displayed on the searchresults page of the website.

Demo 1: (Using IELTS/TOEFL Score)

(Search result of above query is displayed on the next page)

(Search result is)

Demo 2: (Without IELTS/TOEFL Score)
